

Coming Together Group

Cancellation Policy

Cancellations by Participants:

Cancellations made 7 days or more before the booked event will receive a full refund.

Cancellations made less than 7 days before the event will not be refunded, but may be rescheduled for a future session (subject to availability).

Non Attendance:

No refunds or rescheduling options are provided for participants who do not attend without advanced notice.

Cancellations by Becomings:

If an event is cancelled Marta at Becomings, participants will have the option to either receive a full refund or have their booking transferred to a future event (subject to availability).

Series Registration Policy:

If registering for the full series, cancellations must be made 7 days prior to the first event for a full refund. After the series begins, no refunds will be issued for unused sessions.

Exceptional Circumstances:

In cases of unforeseen emergencies, please contact Marta directly to discuss your situation. I'll aim to provide flexible options where possible.